Your Curriculum Vitae (CV)

Please create your own CV. The style and formatting is entirely up to you; however, please provide the following information:

Educational Philosophies and Practices (approximately 250 words)

Please outline your educational philosophy and/or key pedagogical approaches that you believe make a tangible positive difference to student learning.

Christian Beliefs (approximately 250 words)

Please outline your understanding of the Christian faith. Some areas you could address include:

- What it means to be a Christian
- The place of the Bible in the Christian faith

Topical Issues (approximately 250 words each)

In your capacity as a teacher, it is possible that students will ask you questions about topical issues related to the Christian faith. Please give an indication as to how you would respond to a student who inquired about ANY 2 of the following issues:

- Homosexual relationships
- What the Christian faith says about evolution
- What the Christian faith says about abortion
- How God heals the sick

Your Academic Background and Training

Education Institution	Qualification	Majoring In	Year Conferred
-----------------------	---------------	-------------	----------------

Academic results are preferred, but not required.

Your Employment History

In chronological order, please outline your teaching experience.

Include:

- Years of service e.g. January 2004 – December 2007
- Name of employer e.g. Cronulla High School
- Brief description of your duties with this employer e.g. day to day casual relief teaching
- While not required, you are encouraged to provide a brief outline of your non-teaching employment history.

Selection criteria

- Please outline your suitability for the advertised role, using the selection criteria or other information supplied about the position.

References

- Please supply the names and contact details of at least two referees, one of whom should be a minister/pastor of a protestant church. Written references are optional.

Paid Working with Children Check (WWCC)

- A paid working with children check number must be supplied with this application. Applicants who have not received a paid WWCC number by the closing date for applications should mention this in a covering letter. (Volunteer numbers sufficient pending the paid clearance)

NESA Registration/Accreditation

- Please supply your registration or accreditation number on the application form. If an applicant is in the process of applying and has not yet received his/her number, the applicant should briefly note this in a covering letter.

Privacy Advice

- Submitting an application for employment to Shire Christian School authorises the school to distribute the documentation supplied by the applicant to the appointed interview panel and other staff who have involvement in the recruitment process. The school is likely to retain this documentation unless the applicant requests that it be destroyed. The documentation supplied may be stored in a cloud-based storage facility such as Google Drive.

Health conditions

- If you have any health related needs or conditions that could influence your work should you be employed at the school, please outline these needs or conditions in your application.
